~OPENING PRAYER Lent UMH 268

Liturgist

God of wilderness and water,
your Son was baptized and tempted as we are.
Guide us through this season,
that we may not avoid struggle,
but open ourselves to blessing,
through the cleansing depths of repentance
and the heaven-rending words of the Spirit. Amen.

L: God of deliverance and freedom,
you taught the people of Israel
to acknowledge that all things come from your bountiful hand.

C: Deepen our faith
so that we may resist temptation
and, in the midst of trial,

A: Proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord,
now and for ever. Amen.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Liturgist

Jeremiah 31:31-34 Pew Bible OT p 691

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the LORD,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Romans 10:8b-13

Liturgist

Holy Source of all good things, Our offering cannot begin to repay the many gifts we have received, most clearly the gift of our redemption through your son Jesus Christ. May our act of giving be the proclamation of our hearts to all the world that we are so desperately in need of a savior; and in love, you provided Jesus. By your love alone, we boldly pray in Christ's holy name. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Mark 14:12-25 Pew Bible NT p 48

Liturgist

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?" So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there." So the disciples set out and went to the city, and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

When it was evening, he came with the twelve. And when they had taken their places and were eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me." They began to be distressed and to say to him one after another, "Surely, not I?" He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the bowl with me. For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born."

The Institution of the Lord's Supper

While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

24 Hours that Changed the World - The Last Supper

Mark 14:12-25

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed...he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Sermon Notes

I. "Go and Make Preparations for Us..." Mark 14:12-16

What I want to remember about the Seder:

II. "One of You Will Betray Me..." Mark 14:18-21

How did the disciples fail Jesus? How is this your story?

III. "This is My Body...": From Seder to Eucharist Mark 14:22-25

What is the aim of the Passover Seder? How did it point both back and forward?

How does this help us understand the Eucharist?

How does he Eucharist point back and forward?

IV. Who Will Be At Your Last Supper?

Why this meal mattered so much to Jesus:

Who would be your spiritual support when facing the end?

Suggested Action: Interview a Jewish friend about how they celebrate a Passover Seder
