

German Philosopher Fredrick Nietzsche said,
“He who has a why can endure any how.”

Your WHY is your purpose, cause, and beliefs that inspire and drive you to do what you do. Your WHY defines your contribution and impact on the lives of others. “Remember, people don’t buy WHAT you do, they buy WHY you do it.” Simon Sinek

Take time to observe and reflect on what you individually can offer to promote our church's WHY through it’s various ministries and missions:

1. Spiritually:

Those areas where I am capable:

Those areas where I am limited:

Those areas in which I need to grow:

2. Physically:

Those areas where I am capable:

Those areas where I am limited:

3. Time:

Those times when I am able:

Those times when I am limited:

4. Resources:

Those areas where I am capable:

Those areas where I am limited:

5. Emotionally:

Those areas where I am capable:

Those areas where I am limited:
